

The Tale of Mrs. Spoon

By Priscilla

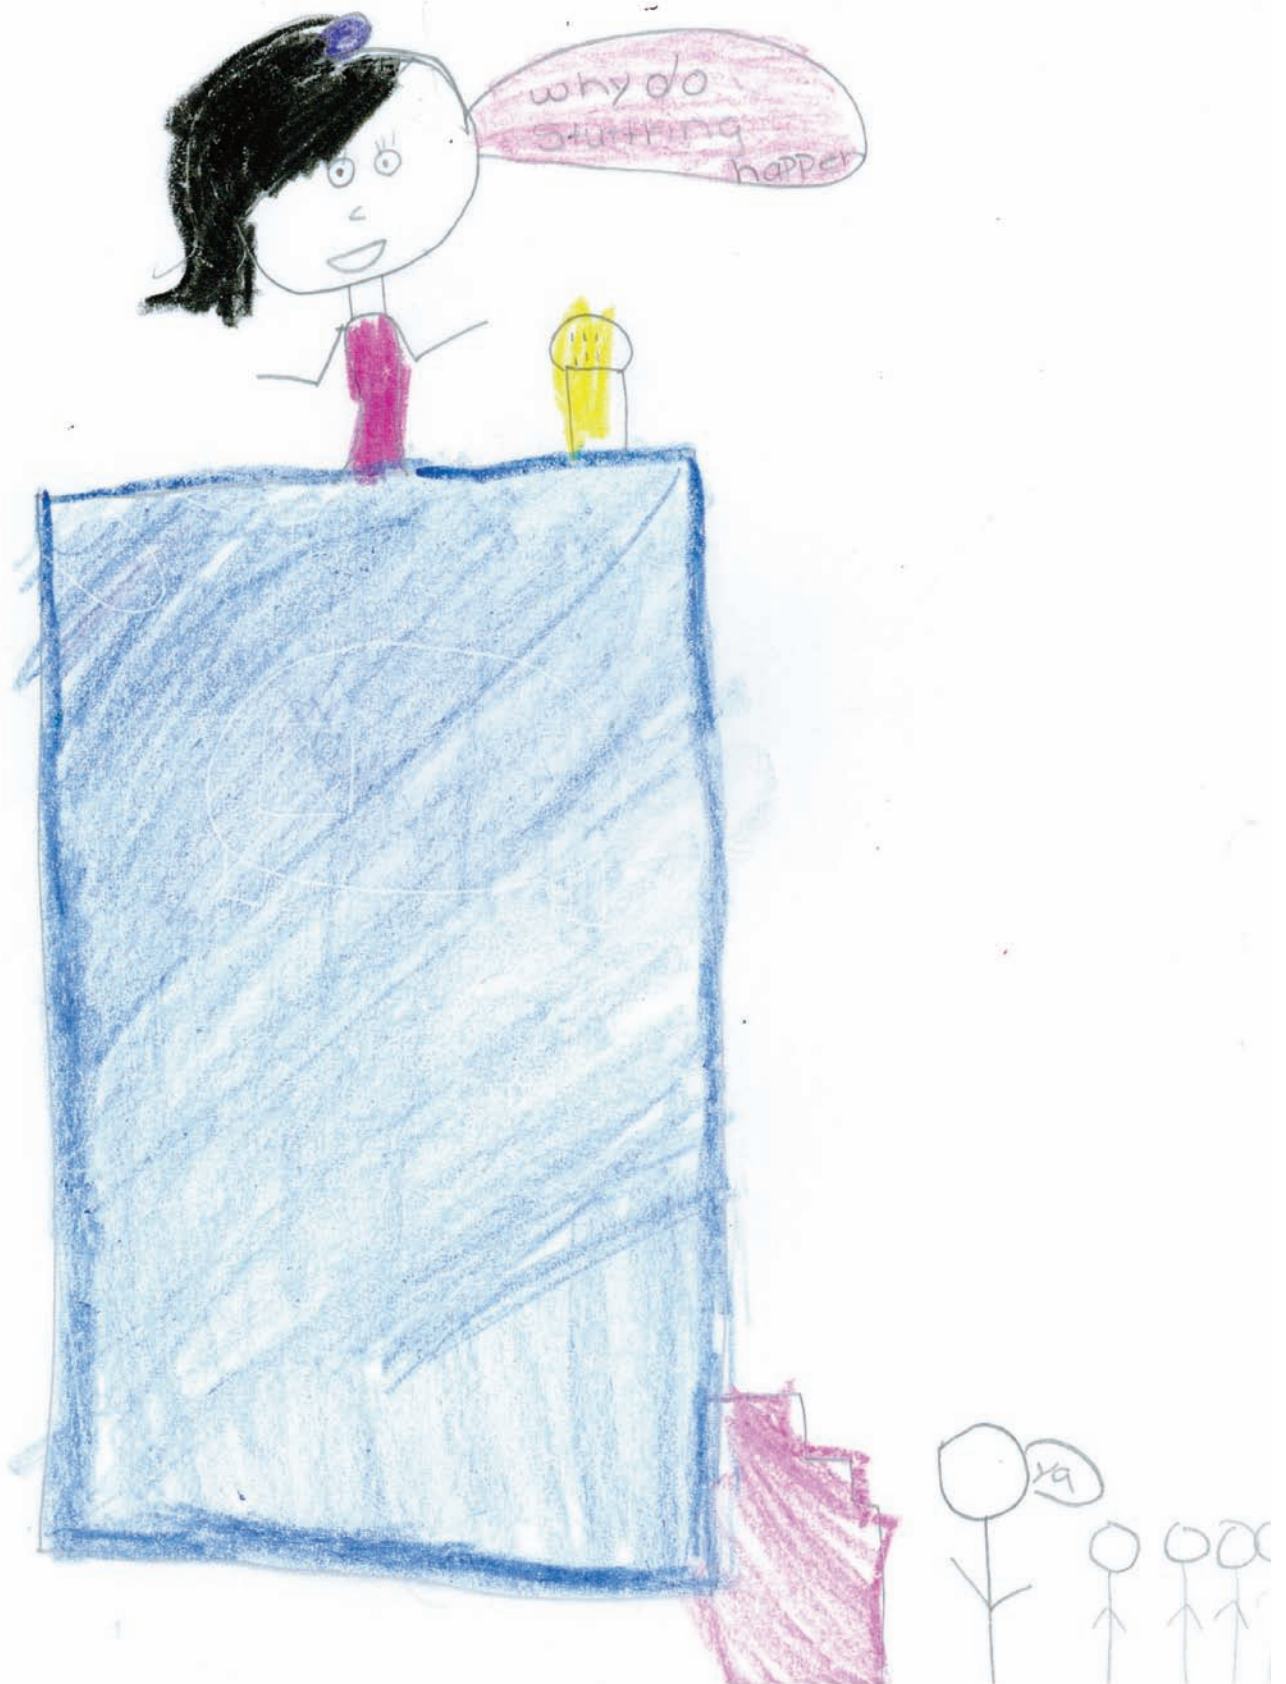

Dedicated to Holly

Mrs. Spoon grew up with a speech therapist. When she was little she had speech therapy. She was an expert at speech. Her speech teacher was named Ms. Keen. Mrs. Spoon learned a lot about her speech.

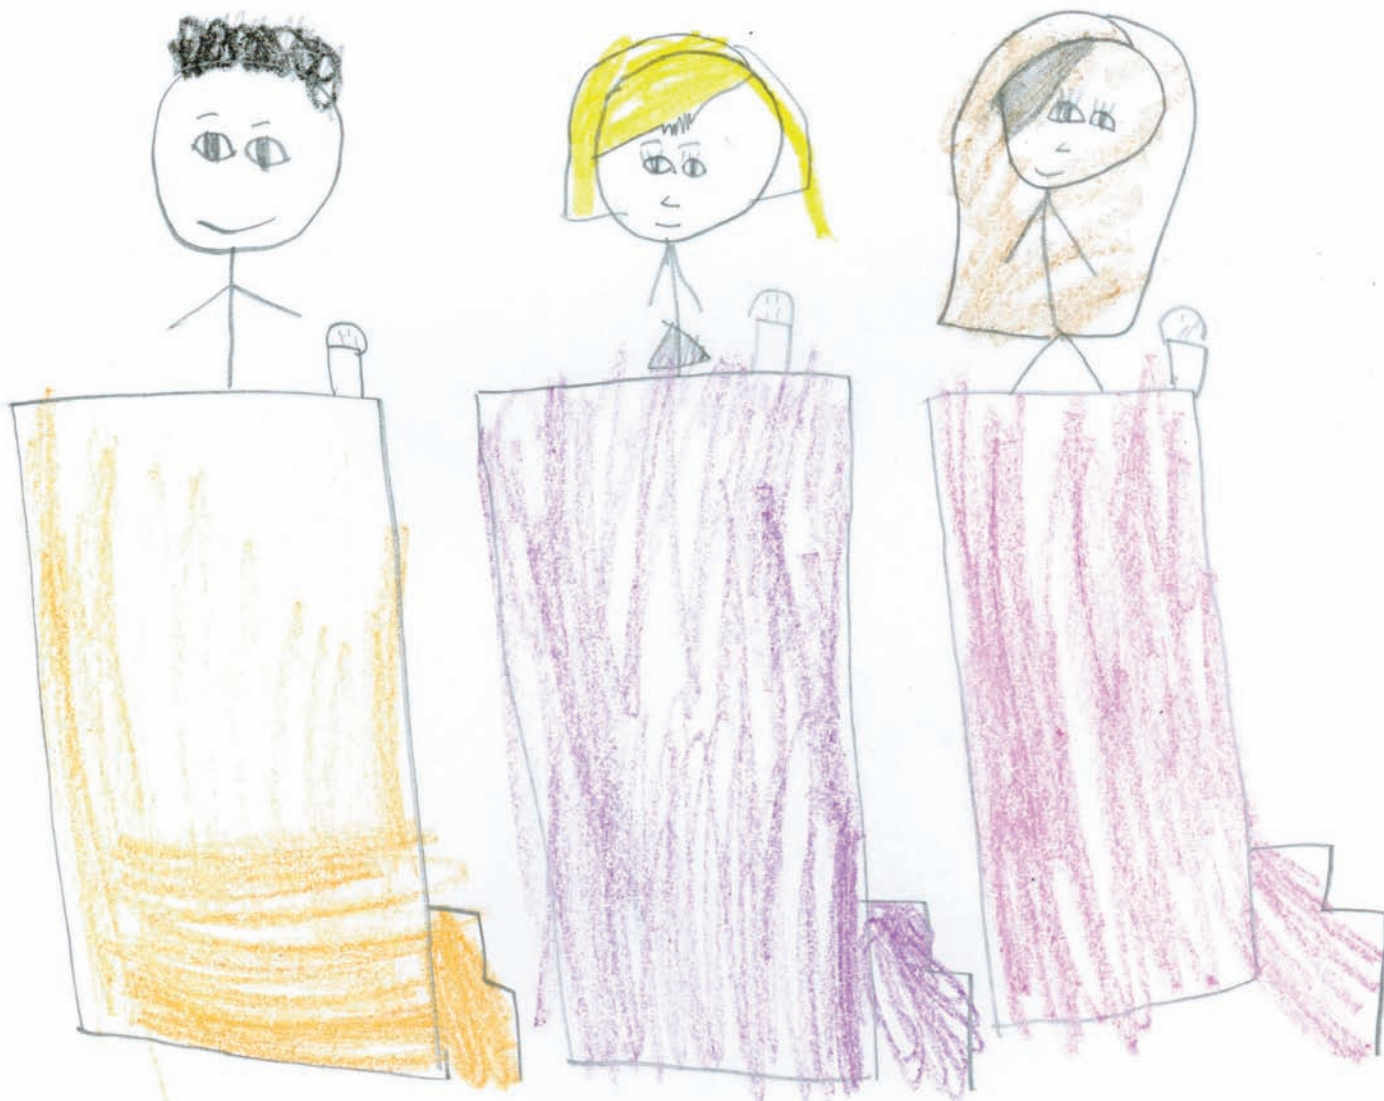

Soon Mrs. Spoon met Mrs. Pawm, another speech therapist. She grew up with Mrs. Pawm. She learned about slide outs and cancellations. She liked children so her future was to become a speech teacher!

One day Mrs. Spoon gave a speech. Everyone wanted to know how she learned so fast!

Soon Mrs. Spoon wrote books about her life...
And movies...
And made podcasts.

Mrs. Spoon's students were experts, too. They were experts at stuttering and using speech tools.

Later on she met President Obama. He said, “Can you help me with family members who stutter?” She said, “Of course! What time?” He said, “How about now?” She said, “Sure!”

After Mrs. Spoon worked all over the world, she helped many kids with their speech therapy. She is the most famous woman ever!
