Joseph Donaher: Receives a salary from Children's Hospital of Philadelphia and an honorarium from Stuttering Foundation for teaching the workshop.
Vivian Sisskin: Receives a salary from the University of Maryland, owns her own private practice specializing in stuttering, and receives an honorarium from Stuttering Foundation for teaching the workshop.

NONFINANCIAL DISCLOSURES

Lisa Scott: None
Joseph Donaher: Serves on the Continuing Education Committee for the Stuttering Foundation.
Vivian Sisskin: Serves on the Professional Relations Committee, National Stuttering Association; serves on ASHA Specialty Board on Fluency Disorders.

Representing the Stuttering Foundation: Jane Fraser, President

Workshop Format: This five-day workshop is presented through lectures, small group activities, videos and discussion. Participants have the opportunity to practice new skills and to present questions about their clients in a small group. Workshop leaders will be available to participants for ongoing practical support during the six months following the workshop. In order to evaluate the impact of the training, participants will be contacted for written feedback in December 2014.

Participants: Twenty workshop participants are chosen from a variety of work settings, including schools, universities, hospitals, clinics and private practice. U.S. eligible applicants must have their certificate of clinical competence. We enjoy a diverse group with recent attendees from numerous states in the U.S., and Spain, Thailand, and South Africa.

Costs: The Stuttering Foundation provides all conference fees and lodging costs, which includes a per diem for meals. Attendees are responsible for their own travel arrangements.

Accommodations: Workshop attendees will stay in single-occupancy student dorm rooms in the same facility on the University campus. The workshop begins on Monday, July 7, with your arrival anticipated on the preceding afternoon or evening on Sunday, July 6.

Deadline: All applications must be received by March 17, 2014, by mail; no faxes or e-mail. All applicants will be contacted during the last week of April with the decision of the admissions committee.

Continuing Education: The Stuttering Foundation is approved by the Continuing Education Board of the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association (ASHA) to provide continuing education activities in speech-language pathology and audiology. This program is offered for 2.9 CEUs (Advanced Level, Professional Area). ASHA CE Provider approval does not imply endorsement of course content, specific products, or clinical procedures.
